ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
1.	The defendant shall participate in a program of drug testing and substance abuse treatment which may include a 30-day inpatient treatment program followed by up to 90 days in a residential reentry center at the direction of the probation officer.

Christopher Nichols failed to submit to random urine screens November 19, 2012, November 28, 2012, December 26, 2012, February 6, 2013, and February 19, 2013.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Christopher Nichols commenced the term of supervised release on September 10, 2012. This officer received Mr. Nichols' case in February 2013. As a special condition of supervision, he was ordered to reside in a halfway house for 12 months. He was also ordered to pay $8,263 restitution. An order was signed by the Court on July 17, 2013, removing the condition requiring Mr. Nichols to reside in a halfway house for the remainder of the twelve-month period and directing the probation office to initiate transfer of supervision to Flintstone, Georgia. Mr. Nichols relocated to the home of his mother located in Flintstone, Georgia, on July 27, 2013. As previously indicated, Mr. Nichols failed to submit random urine screens on November 19, 2012, November 28, 2012, December 26, 2012, February 6, 2013, and February 19, 2013. Mr. Nichols is currently unemployed and owes $7,698 restitution. A transfer of supervision request has been submitted, and the Northern District of Georgia is providing courtesy supervision pending final decision regarding transfer of supervision.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

The U.S. Probation Office is not requesting that any action be taken at this time. Should the defendant fail to submit to any additional urine screens, the Court will be notified in a separate petition with a separate recommendation.
